

Why Wordshark?!

Reception through to age 16

- Wordshark is for Primary schools, used by students of every age and ability
- It is also popular for use by older students, for catch-up or for KS3 vocabulary

10,000 words & sentences

- For easy access/progression, the word lists are placed in structured courses ('Wordshark' course, National Curriculum, Everyday Vocabulary, Letters and Sounds, KS3 vocabulary, and more...)

Dyslexia & other SEND

- The multi-sensory activities, the selection of pre-recorded words/sentences, (including an 'Alpha to Omega' course), plus the options available are all specially structured to support students with dyslexia
- Wordshark is sold on recommendation such as, by Educational Psychologists and other SEND specialists

EAL

- The spelling courses give a thorough and structured way of learning English spelling, with rapid progress...
- Students new to English really benefit, in particular, from using the 'Everyday Vocabulary' course

Progress

- Teachers can view each student's records, to track progress and forward-plan effectively
- Students can progress through independent learning – working at their own pace and ability level
- Wordshark provides 'overlearning' to help students retain information, but also develops sub-skills

Lesson ideas

- Use Wordshark to introduce the lesson, or for consolidation. You can choose to set work for individual students or for groups
- Spelling patterns and rules can be introduced in a systematic way - great for spelling targets and homework
- Each list comes with print-outs, for worksheets and flashcards

Your own words & other options

- Add/record your own words - brilliant for targeting specific words or introducing vocabulary in topic work
- Options/settings allow you to tweak Wordshark to meet the exact learning needs of your students

Easy to use

- For teachers, the basics of Wordshark are quick and easy to grasp
- For students, the program is user-friendly, with the games and mini reward games providing motivation

Value for money

- Only pay once: a Wordshark purchase is a one-off payment
- Take advantage of unlimited student and teacher accounts: you can have an account for every child in the school. You can add more students with each new school year.
